MEET THE TEAM

JÉRÔME LEFORT
Territory Manager

I joined the company in 2015 as Territory Manager in France. My days consist of several scenarios – I can take time to discuss and meet my customers, discover new ones, but also estimate equipment. We are always looking for appropriate solutions for our customers, for the management of their equipment fleet.

Ritchie Bros. offers the opportunity for multiple rewarding encounters with all types of buyers and sellers, it also provides a broad view of the market and its challenges. This allows you to have access to a wide choice of available machines which will then be sold to the highest bidder. This opens up the field of possibilities to many buyers who come from all over the world.

The golden rule during our sales is anticipation. Make sure to offer and prepare the machines you want to sell as early as possible (one to two months before the sale is my advice), and make sure to deliver early to our yard so that we can do our promotion work in the best way possible.
